PROGRAMS GOALS

The purpose of this one-day conference is to provide continuing education for the Nursing Professional Development Specialist/Nurse Educator to enhance their knowledge with current best-practices used locally by fellow nursing Professional Development Specialists.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

- Explore the use of clinical simulation to enhance clinical orientation and problem based learning - focusing on patient safety and improving health care outcomes.
- Describe challenges in developing multidisciplinary educational materials.
- Identify creative teaching strategies to engage the adult learner in computer education
- Review the TCAB process.
- State one way to apply TCAB.
- Develop a competency statement to meet one strategic goal.

ABOUT THE SPEAKERS

Brenda Vogt, MSN, RN-BC ~ Orientation Coordinator for Kennedy Heath System. Brenda was awarded the Clinical Practice Award by NJSNA in 2009 and provides many community-based professional education sessions.

Robin Ash Yeager, MSN, RN-BC ~ Orientation Coordinator for Clinical Education and Research. Robin uses her expertise to enhance clinical competency through innovative use of technology.

Karla Beden RN, MSN ~ Coordinator Clinical Informatics for Deborah Heart and Lung Center. Karla's extensive informatics experience provides staff with the means to make healthcare more effective and efficient.
